

BATHONIA REDIVIVA.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of your Majesties

CITY of BATH IN THE County of Somersfett.

WE your Majesties Loyal Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Counsel, and other Citizens of your Majesties antient City of Bath, originally * founded, enlarged and indowed with sundry Privileges by your Majesties Royal Progenitors, Kings of this Realm, Doe with all thankfulness of heart and tongue to Almighty God, and demonstrations of our publick Joy, and Loyalty to your Majesty, congratulate your most happy and longed-for return to the actual possession of your Majesties hereditary Kingdoms and royal Authority over them and this your City, with Safety, Honor, and Triumph (after many years deplorable Exile) without the least Opposition or Bloodshed. Which miraculous Restauration of your Majesty, (begun and compleated within the circle of one month) as we cannot contemplate without Admiration, and acknowledge it an Unparalleled Wonder wrought by God himself without human contributions soon after your Majesty was proclaimed King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland by Hereditary and undoubted Birthright, by order of both your Houses of Parliament; Which Solemnity as we most Chearfully performed with all possible expressions of our publick Joy, by reiterated Acclamations of GOD SAVE KING CHARLES THE SECOND, volleys of Shor, ringing of Bells, Conduits streaming forth Wine, Bonfires, and other Festivities: So we think it our bounden duties by this our unanimous publick Address, humbly to prostrate our selves at your Majesties feet, assuring your Majesty, That we all are your loyal and dutifull Subjects, and shall by Gods assistance, according to our bounden duties, bear Faith and true Allegiance to your Majesty, your Heirs and Lawfull Successors for ever: And shall with the last drop of our blouds and Fortunes, upon all occasions, evidence our selves to be, Your Majesties dutifull and obedient Subjects. In testimony whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our hands, together with our hearts, and affixed our Corporation Seal the fourth day of June, in the Twelfth Year of your Majesties reign; And shall ever pray for your Majesties long life, prosperity, increase of glory, and temporal and eternal felicity.

THis humble Adresse, was presented to the Kings most Excellent Majestie, in his Bedchamber at Whitehall, Saturday morning (the 16. of June 1660.) by William Prynne Esq; (one of the Citizens now serving in Parliament for the City of Bath) whom they desired by Letter to present it to his Majesty, his fellow-Citizen being absent. Who after a short Speech (comprising the substance of this Adresse) read it distinctly to his Majesty, and then delivered it into his Royal hand. His Majesty most Joyfully and Gratioussly receiving it in his hand, commanded Mr. Prynne, to return his Majesties most hearty thanks to his Cirie and Citizens of Bath, for this their loyal Adresse; which he took very kindly and gratefully from them; and to assure them, in his Majesties behalf, that he would upon all occasions most readily extend his Royal Favours towards them, the rather, for that they had freely chosen Mr. Prynne for one of their Citizens in this Parliament, who was so Good a Friend to Him, and had done Him and his whole Kingdome such good service.
